THE GREAT MATCH GAME-THE ATHLErics Victorious.—The Athletics have at last scored the odds against the Atlantics. Their defeat on Monday last, at Brooklyn, by the Atlantics, added increased interest to the return match played yesterday, at the grounds of the Athletics, Fifteenth street and Columbia avenue. Hundreds of New Yorkers accompanied the club from that city, and during Sunday night and yesterday, morning ware gently the street and columbia avenue. resterday morning were enthusiastic in the praise of their layorites. As on the previous occasion, when the match was prevented by the crowd at the grounds, betting was indulged in to a great extent, the New Yorkers offering odds. At the ground an immense crowd was in attendance. Inside the enclosure about four thousand persons were provided with seats, while every eminence outside the fence was occupied by the people who were not disposed to pay the dollar entrance fee. Carriages, omnibuses, and ve-hicles of all descriptions were plentiful, and from these a good view of the play was obtained. It was estimated that about fifteen thousand persons were in and around the enclosure.

As an evidence of the interest felt in the match, it may be stated that the roofs of dwellings a square distant were filled with people. The day was cloudy, and during the morning and afternoon there were indications of a ram storm, but nothing occurred to prevent the game progressing until the eighth inning.

The game commenced a few minutes after 2-o'clock, the Atlantics at the bat, and during the first three innings this club appeared to have the game in their own bands, the Athletics failing to secure more than two, while the Atlantics had a score of nine. In the fourth inning the Athletics began to play in earnest, and at the fifth inning had obtained four ahead of their opponents. This achievement was halled with immense cheering by the Philadelphians. From this time the Athletics continued steadily to add to their score, waking twelve in the sixth inning. On the seventh inning the Atlantics scored two, and had a total of twelve. In the same inning the Athletics made the total of their score thirty-one. At the commencement of the eighth inning the rain began falling, and the umpire, Mr. Boemeisler, called "game," and the play came to an end, amid the enthusiastic cheers of the Philadelphians.

Both clubs played well, but the excellent batting of the Athletics after the third inning secured the victory.

The score was as follows:—

FINAL HEARING OF THE RIOTERS.—Before Recercier Eneu yesterday, Joseph Tuackara, Joseph Tatem, John Shaffer, and Samuel Tucker had a hearing on the charge of riot. The accused were arrested on the oath of James Falby, proprietor of a public house at Moyamensing avenue and Federal street, about whose place a riot occurred on the last night of the taking of the extra assessment. The witnesses were Mr. Falby, Jesse Johnson, and others, and the testimony was to the effect that notice had been given to Mr. Falby that his bouse was to be attacked, and that after 10 o'clock, when the Assessors had closed their books, and he was behind the bar waiting on some customers, a rush was made for the house, and pistols were firel. Some of the persons inside went out the back door for fear of being injured. One of the witnesses testified that Samuel Tucker, who is a policeman, discharged a pistol at the house of Mr. Falby; and Thackara and Tatem were said to be among the crowd from which cries of "Tear the house out" were heard. Mr. Falby said no pistols were fired from the tavern. Shaffer was seen in the street, but no one could say that he took any part in the attack on the house. He was discharged by the Recorder, but the other defendants were held to bail for their appearance at Court.

DISHONEST DOMESTICS .- Frederica Prince, a domestic for the past eighteen months in the employment of Mr. M. Goldman, No. 1703 Green street, had a hearing yesterday at the Central Station, charged with having been engaged in a series of depredations: and a female domestic in the same family testified that Frederica had carried off butter, eggs, potatoes, flour, and various other articles from the larder, and that she had also helped herself to considerable wine which Mr. Goldman had brought from Germany. She was held for trial.

AN INTERESTING PRESENTATION AT THE "CONTINENTAL." - Last evening a number of leading merchants, manufacturers, and citizens of Philatelphia, presented to Mr. J. E. Kingsley, proprietor of the Continental Hotel, a bandsome and valuable service of silver, as a compliment to a public-spirited and intelligent citizen, who has shown much interest in the good name and reputation of Philadelphia. Mr. Kingsley leading merchants, manufacturers, and citizens certainly merited this spontaneous and becoming testimonial. After the presentation the company sat down to an elegant entertainment, which was followed by speech-making, etc.

LIGHT FINGERED, - Sarah Green has not got the proper idea of the difference between meam and fuum, and got into a peck of trouble yesterday on that recount. She sauntered into a dry goods store, and slify slipped a couple of pieces of velvet ribbon into her pocket. She thought herself unobserved, but a sharp-cyed clerk was watching her movements from the rear of the store. He at once judged her business, and slipping out to the sicewalk, informed Officer Alexander of Sarah's strange conduct. The policeman entered the store, arrested the The policeman entered the store, arrested the defendant, and upon searching her the stolen property was recovered in a pillow-case, which was sewed to the inside of her dress. Through an opening in her skirt she could drop the arti cles into the pillow-case. Sarah is undoubtedly an old hand at the business. She was commit-ted in default of $1500 ball by Recorder Eneu.

A Young Ingrate.-A short time since a boy, peorly clad, called at the Sailors' Home in South Front street, and claimed charity. He was received into the home and supplied with clothes, and after a while a place in the country was obtained for him, to which he was to go on Saturday last. Previous to the time fixed for his departure he discovered where a lot of valuables were stored, and he made off with about'$500 worth of jewelry, watches, gold pen-cils, etc. The boy said he belonged to English's

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE PICTORIAL BOOK OF ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS OF THE REBALLION: Heroic Patricite, Romantic, Humorous, and Tragica.

There is a certain bor ion of the war that will naver go into the resular histories, and will not get embodied in romance and poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gosslp, the fun the pathon, of the war.

This illustrates the character of the leaders the humor of the sold ers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pitock of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very altractive form.

The volume is profusely flustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art, Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, secut, bivouac, siege, and battle-field adventures; thrilling tears of bravery, wit, drollery comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, bri lant wit, and authen to Distory are skilm ly interwoven in this work of lierary art.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partisan works, and want something humorous rementic, and startling. The agents are making from slife to $200 per month, car of all expenses. Send for circulars a viving full particulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion.
